$5,000,000 LOAN VOTED FOR LIBERIA

Passage of Resolution by House Shifts Issue to the Senate.

Passage by the House of the resolution authorizing a loan by this country of $5,000,000 to the Liberian republic had shifted the issue to the Senate today. Following the vote in the House last night, which was 148 to 139, Chairman Fordney of the House ways and means committee predicted the resolution would be put through the Senate speedily and sent to the President.

The final vote in the House, in which about forty republicans joined with a solid democratic opposition and many others of the majority membership did not vote, was taken after the defeat of a motion to recommit, with instructions to amend the resolution so that no part of the loan should be used in paying the indebtedness of Liberia incurred prior to August 1, 1914.

Bitter Partisan Fight.
Debate on the resolution occasioned a bitter partisan fight, and, at the same time, furnished what some members described as the remarkable spectacle of republican leaders insisting that an agreement of the Wilson administration should be carried out, with democratic leaders asserting that the loan to Liberia was authorized in 1913 in "defiance of law."

While there were many allusions to Mr. Wilson, the statement by Mr. Fordney which aroused democratic wrath was made during a sharp passage bearing on the political make-up of Michigan.

"We are intelligent people up there and we know how to vote," said Chairman Fordney, at which the chairman asked, "if you have any school teachers up there?"

"None who received their education in Virginia," Mr. Fordney shouted.

"The gentleman says that a school teacher is not much of a man outside of his own job," said Representative Lowery, democrat, Mississippi, and Mr. Fordney instantly broke in.

Good-Bye Song Sung.

"Not unless he has considerable training in some other line," the chairman declared. "Take him direct from school to the White House and he is a glorious misfit. But as a political boss he worked for a while, but he finally overstepped himself. Let me say that in that connection in 1920, I made this statement—that the then President was going to change his boarding house on the 4th day of March, and he did. I said I would say to him what I have heard sung at the close of a school I attended down in the back wood."

"Goodbye scholars, goodbye school, 'Goodbye teacher, you darned old fool.'"

The republican side rocked with laughter.

Declaring that he "resented" the insult to Mr. Wilson, Representative Connally, democrat, Texas, who replied to "the attack," told the House Mr. Fordney would eliminate his statement from the Congressional Record.

"The gentleman from Michigan, as is usually the case when he addresses the House," said Mr. Connally, "embraced the first opportunity he had to indulge in the same kind of coarse, lively stable conversation about the ex-President of the United States, Mr. Woodrow Wilson."

Wilson Is Defended.

"Of course, it does not take any school teacher to understand that the gentleman from Michigan intended by his language a nasty fling at the great ex-President, who is not able to come here on this floor and defend himself against the coarse insults that are from time to time heaped upon his head. That great man is ill. He lies stricken. I think it is unseemly and unbecoming in the chairman of a great committee to regale the galleries and his partisan audience here with these low, mean, nasty flings at a former President of the United States."

"There was a time when the now ex-President was able to take care of himself in his own proper way, and during that time the gentlemen from Michigan and others who have seen it from time to time to hurl at his defenseless head these insinuations and insults would not have dared to use such language."

"There are those now who gather about him to view his misfortune with satisfaction, to hurl denunciations and insinuations at him in his defenseless condition."

Chairman Fordney said the resolution, which goes now to the Senate, would be passed speedily and sent to the President.

ROCKVILLE.

ROCKVILLE, May 11 (Special).—Sitting as the county board of health, the county commissioners yesterday afternoon re-elected Dr. William T. Pratt of Rockville secretary to the board and county health officer for a term of four years. His annual salary is $1,200.

Thomas Gott of Rockville, who recently resigned as a deputy in the office of the county commissioners here, has been appointed by the commissioners' clerk of the police court and he has entered upon the discharge of his duties. His salary is $1,200 a year.

A delegation of citizens of Friendship Heights, Somerset and Drummond, this county, headed by William D. Shoemaker, appeared before the county commissioners here and urged that a public road be opened from Wisconsin avenue extended, at Somerset, to Chevy Chase Circle. The commissioners will, it is understood, comply with the request if they find, after an investigation, that there is no good reason why it should be denied.

Upon the advice of Drs. Benjamin Perry and William T. Pratt, Mary Carroll of this county has been adjudged by the county commissioners to be of unsound mind and has been ordered committed to Crownsville Asylum for care and treatment at the expense of the county and state.

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Multilind coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Multilind in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multilind coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last every one in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multilind—Advertisement.

KLAN FORMS BRANCHES IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Rockville Organization Said to Have Membership of Fifty.

Already Active.

ROCKVILLE, Md., May 11 (Special).—The Ku Klux Klan has it is understood, invaded Montgomery county and branches of the order are said to be in process of organization at Rockville and one or two other points. The Rockville branch membership, which now numbers, it is said, about fifty, is composed largely of residents of Rockville and the vicinity of Olney. Weekly meetings are being held and the membership is understood to be gradually increasing. Considerable resentment has developed among those not in sympathy with the purposes of the order, and those who affiliate with the Klan are, it is said, being "marked" should any of them develop political aspirations. The Klan people, however, are apparently proceeding on the theory that they are within their rights.

COMAS CLUB ORGANIZED.

Organization of a dramatic club by members of the cast of "The Tallor-made Man," presented by the students at Catholic University some weeks ago, was perfected last night. The body will be known as the Comas Club. The following officers were elected: P. J. O'Connor, president; Claude Courand, vice president; John F. Fitzgerald, secretary, and William Hagen, treasurer.

Dr. Harvey, who discovered the circulation of the blood, is said to have been the first coffee drinker in England.
